The Ethnic Potluck dinner will be start at 6:00 pm with Winter Court of Honor following at 7 pm.

The event will be held at the American Legion Hall,
Tuesday Evening February 26, 2008

Parents, siblings, and extended family are invited to celebrate the Scouts' achievements and join in fun and fellowship with all the people who are part of Troop 41!

Potluck Dinner:

Mr. Antonucci is organizing the Ethnic Potluck Dinner as part of his BSA Woodbadge Training diversity ticket. His Goal is to get the individuals of the Troop to Share their ethnic cooking traditions! A CD containing the recipes from the night will be handed out at a later date!

You can help by signing up to bring a main dish or desert representing your family ethnic background AND providing Mr. Antonucci with the recipe so he can include it on the TROOP 41 CD COOKBOOK!

(Please email to: AntonucciMark@hotmail.com or se him directly)

- Please keep your masterpiece simple but bring enough to serve three other families. (don't forget Rolls and butter!)
- Be creative in naming your masterpiece!
- And of course try to avoid the good old American tradition of "Take Out"
- Drinks, Utensils, and paper goods will be provided.

Mr. Antonucci will do his best to organize meals and deserts so we have a good mix. He will get back to you with any changes that need to be made to the menu.

Your help is appreciated in pulling this off!

Please visit: www.woodbadge.org or come see Mr. Antonucci for more information!

Court Of Honor:

The Winter Court of Honor will start at 7 PM with the opening Flag Ceremony and then a time for some Coffee and snacks for those that did not attend the dinner.

Scout Awards will be given out followed by the Troop 41 Slide Show! After the closing ceremony all are dismissed (9 PM)
